The Art of Early Printed Books: Judaica Gems & English Bibles from the Collection of Rabbi Howard R. Buechler

An Exhibit to Celebrate the Dedication of the Gould Law Library
Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center
March 31, 2008
This exhibit features 22 early printed books from the collection of Rabbi Howard R. Buechler. The Judaica selections were published between 1546 and 1832 in the major centers for early Hebrew printing. Included among these rarities are a Hebrew lexicon/grammar published in 1546, Mahzorim, books of sermons, a first book of songs for Shabbat, and three copies of the Shulhan `Arukh - the Code of Jewish Law. The English language Bibles were published in the 19th century. Two of the Bibles are highly decorated, with elaborate bindings and illustrations. All include entries in the family register pages.

Rabbi Buechler, who received both his Master's Degree and Rabbinic ordination from the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1985, is the Congregational Rabbi at Dix Hills Jewish Center in Dix Hills, NY. Prior to coming to DHJC in 1992, he served at Temple Beth Chai in Hauppauge, NY. Rabbi Buechler holds active board and trustee positions with many organizations such as SAJES, the Solomon Schechter Day School of Suffolk County, and the JCC of Suffolk, as well as being involved with civic activities in the Town of Huntington. He is the past President of the Rabbinical Assembly of Nassau-Suffolk and the Suffolk Board of Rabbis. He completed his tenure as Chair of the UJA-Federation Rabbinic Cabinet of Long Island. In addition, Rabbi Buechler has been on the Executive Council of the Rabbinical Assembly, the international organization of Conservative Rabbis and the New York Board of Rabbis. He also has founded and/or co-founded several remarkable Jewish institutions in Suffolk County ranging from the Suffolk Mikveh to SHMA Hebrew High School and the Chai Institute of Adult Jewish Studies. He practices his avocation as an antiquarian bookman while traveling throughout the world - gathering a wonderful collection of antiquarian Judaica, as well as other books. The library is grateful to Rabbi Buechler for sharing his treasures with us.

   Book of twelve sermons.

   The note “Con licentia de’ Superiori” indicates that the book was printed with permission of the Catholic Church.

5. Maimonides, Moses. Sefer ha-mitsyot ... Veha-ḥonim `alay Mosheh bar Naḥman ... ye-ḥaray ye’ir netiv Yitsḥaḵ de Le’on ... bi-teshuvotay asher nilḳetu mi-sifro ha-niḳra Megilat Ester ... uve-sof ha-ḥibur ra’inu le-hadpis Igeret Teman u-Ma’amar teḥiyat ha-metim. Amsterdam: bi-defus Y. Ḳṭi’ash, [1660].

   The translation is that of Moses Ibn Tibbon.

   The Six Hundred and Thirteen Commandments.

   Book of Roots.

   The lexicon Sefer ha-Shorashim is the second part of Radak’s encyclopedia of Hebrew grammar called Sefer Miklol
7. Albelda, Moses ben Jacob. Sefer Reshit da’at ... Venetsi’ah [Venice]: Zu’an Bragadin [Bragadini], 343 [1583].
   Collection of sermons.

   Seder Tohorot [Cleanliness] is the sixth and last order of the Mishnah. Among its twelve tractates is Peah [the Red Heifer].

   This volume includes Yevamot, Kiddushin, and Ketubbot.
   A bookplate is attached to the verso of the front cover indicating that at some point the book was given to the Dutch Israel Seminary in memory of D. I. Hollander. “In the merit of lending, his soul will be tied to the bundle of life.”

    This miniature book of prophets has two titles bound as one: Nevi’im and Ketuvim. The size indicates it was made for travel and personal use.
[Book of Yehudah’s Songs]
“The core of the book is a song to be sung at festive meals ...”
It includes an interpretation of the songs with Hebrew and Yiddish commentary.

12. Mahazor: helak rishon ke-minhag Ashkenaz ve-Polin: ‘im perush leshon Ashkenaz ve-dine me-Hadrat kodesh: ve-‘im perush rov ha-Kavanat ha-paitan ... Rosh Ha-shanah ve-Shabat Shuvah ...

Includes Yiddish translation.
15. Sefer Sha`are hayim / ... be`ur `al sefer ha-Mekah vechamemkar le-rav Hai ga`on ... Salonika: Yosef Molkho, [574] 1814.

Hai Ben Sherira (Hai Gaon) is considered the “molder of the halakhah and the most prominent figure of his time.”  This treatise on purchases also includes commentaries by Hananiah Isaac Michael Aryeh.

The printing of the book on blue paper may indicate that it was a deluxe edition.

16. Karo, Joseph ben Ephraim. Sefer Ape ravreve: ye-hem be`urim ... `al Shulhan `arukh Even ha-`ezr ... Ḥelkat meḥokek ... [me-et] Mosheh ... de Brišk ... . Fyorda [Fuerth]: Shemu`el Bansat ben Yosef Shne`or, [485?] 1725 or 1726.

This work includes commentaries on the Shulhan `arukh [The Code of Jewish Law].

Part 1 of a four part commentary on Maimonides` Mishneh Torah. In this work the Masrud Ben Aaron Raccah compares the texts of various editions of the Mishneh Torah.

This work is missing the title page, but it appears to be part 2 of an edition of Daniel Bomberg`s famous Rabbinic Bible. Bomberg`swork set a pattern for printing the Bible that continues until this day.

An interesting note is added to a tipped in page at the front of the work. “Volume found by a French officer at Sebastopol in 1855. Crimean Campaign, 1854-55-56.”
ENGLISH LANGUAGE BIBLES:

19. The Holy Bible: containing the Old and New Testaments translated out of the original tongues, and with the former translations diligently compared and revised; with Canne’s marginal notes and references; together with the Apocrypha; to which are added an index, and an alphabetical table of all the names in the Old and New Testaments, with their significations; also, tables of scripture weights, measures and coins. John Brown. Brief concordance to the holy scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Boston: C. Ewer, T. Bedlington, and J.H.A. Frost, 1828.

20. Cassell’s illustrated Bible; containing the Old and New Testaments, with references, numerous critical and explanatory notes, and a condensed concordance. Illustrated with more than nine hundred finished engravings. Springfield, MA: W.J. Holland, 1869–1869?.

This Bible features a beautiful sculpted and gilded cover, as well as numerous steel engravings.

The embossed and gilded cover of this Bible is labeled with the name Ann E. Taylor, although hers is not the first name to appear in the Family Register. Many steel engravings are interspersed throughout the work.

John Brown taught himself Latin, Greek, and Hebrew while working as a shepherd. After taking part in the Jacobite Rebellion, he studied for the ministry. He held a post at Haddington until his death. His works as a biblical scholar include this Bible and a dictionary of the Bible.
